

Regina Mayor

Regina Mayor serves as the National Sector Leader for Energy, Natural Resources and Chemicals and as the Americas Oil and Gas Leader. In both of these capacities, she helps determine the strategy and investment for the firm to better serve the Energy industry as well as optimizes the delivery of our services nationally. She also serves as the global lead partner for several of our relationships with key Energy clients Regina has almost 25 years' experience delivering large scale business and technology changes to major oil companies around the world. She has provided advisory services across the entire oil and gas value chain from wellhead through to retail. Senior executives within the industry frequently seek her advice and guidance on trends and opportunities. Regina is a sought after speaker, having spoken at industry forums like KPMG's annual Global Energy Conference, Platt's LNG Conference, World Energy Conference, National Petroleum Refiners Association, and the Argus Americas Crude Conference. Additionally, she has published many thought leadership articles on performance improvement demonstrated through tangible, financial results. She was recognized by the Houston Business Journal in 2013 and 2014 as "Who's Who in Energy." Regina served as an Adjunct Professor at Rice University's Jones School of Business teaching Energy Strategy to Professional MBA candidates in 2013 and 2014. Regina holds a Bachelor of Science from Cornell University and a Master of Public Policy from Harvard. She was an officer in the U.S. Army Reserve (and interned with the SHAPE Liaison Office at the Pentagon). She was born and raised in Pearl City, Hawaii. Representative Clients: AgipPetroli, Ashland Petroleum, BP, Chevron, Enron, ExxonMobil, Fluor, Marathon Oil Company, Marathon Petroleum Company, Motiva, Shell, TXU.